NEW COMMISSION FOR CHESIER DOYLE

Chester Doyle has been commissioned by High Sheriff Henry a special po-department of the High School, is exlice officer of the High Sheriff's department. The commission has been signed by Henry and approved by Attorney General Peters, and Doyle has already entered upon the discharge of his adlice department, but the advent of lau kea into the police department effected a change in this arrangement. Chester was already a special officer under the Attorney General's Department. His commission under the High Sheriff makes him a special officer for the entire Territory and he will act in that capacity, being liable to be sent to serve papers, make arrests, etc., over all of Hawaii.
